HE'S A GRAND ARMY MAN.

EUGENE P. MAHONEY, OF PERRY POST, 89, OF BROOKLYN.

He Is Employed by the Brooklyn Board of City Works and Everybody Knows Him in Brooklyn. For Seventeen Years He Doctored for Cutarrh, but Never Got Any Relief Till He Went to Drs. McCoy & Wildman. Probably there isn't a more popular or better known man in Brooklyn than Engene V, Mahamay, He is a prominent omployee of the Brooklyn Bhard of fifty Works and is connected with the Water Denactment, He lives at 800 Aslantic are, Brooklyn, and he is a prominent member of Enery Foet, No. 80, Grand Army of the Emphilic, of Especialty, He was one of Upcle Sam's Soldiers during the late, unpleasantness between the Company C of the 17th Regiment, New York Volunteers.

E. V. MAHONEY, 800 ATLANTIC AVE.,
Areporter had a long chat with Mr. Mahoney at his home. Mr. Mahoney is an entertaining talker, and during the conversation said. 'For evenuence grares I doctored for estarth, but is all that time I never got any relief. About two menths ago I went to Dre. McCoy and Wildman. At that time I was suffering so that I had to go to my work limping with the ald of a cane. I wasn't able to walk. I was troubled with dinx goolls in my head and I had swere headscham. 'My head was atopped up all the time so that I hreathed with great difficulty. Chaterth got what he had do not not also my limping with the ald on me the my limping and in the stable to my limping and the time. I felt miserable.

"Every morning I hawked up phlegm and I was spitting all the time. I had catarth of the stomach, too, and my stomach was very weak. I had no appetite whatever. Nothing tempted my appetits, and as a result I felt away to 130 pounds.

"Finally I concluded to go to Drs. McCoy and Wildman, and the first week I was under their treatment. The treatment if the first week I was under treatment. The treatment had such a wonderful effect on the first went to Drs. McCoy and Wildman. In a different man altogether. In fact, to make a long etory chort, I can't aive Drs. McCoy and Wildman praise enough. They have done me so much good that I have sent a number of my friends to them who were suffering with datarth."

Mrs. Mahoney, Mr. Mahoney's wife, is very enthusatio over the changed condition of ber husband, and praisee Drs. McCoy and Wildman highty.

Wasted Argument. [From the Philadelphia Inquirer.];
A lightning-rod agent spent several hours in endeavoring to persuade Alfred Elliott, of Malvern, to have rods placed on his farm buildings, but he was unsuccessful. Two hours after he had gone one of the buildings was struck. The agent heard the news and returned, but the farmer was still immovable.

"No," said he, "lightning never strikes twice in the same place."
